Involuntary Bankruptcy.

The following opinion was delivered by Judge Deady, yesterday, in the District Court. The motion for judgment was argued by Whalley for the petitioner and Logan for the Debtor.

DISTRICT COURT U. S.—DISTRICT OF OREGON.—In Re Sutherland—Involuntary Bankruptcy.

On November 30, 1867, certain creditors of E. Sutherland filed a petition in bankruptcy against said Sutherland, charging him with divers acts of bankruptcy, committed on and after November 19, 1861, and praying that he be declared a bankrupt.

On the filing of the petition an order was entered, requiring the debtor to show cause, on the first Monday in January, 1868, why the prayer of the petition should not be allowed.

On January 1, 1868, the debtor by his solicitor filed a paper in the words of "Form No. 61," in the "General orders and proceedings" prescribed by the Justices of the Supreme Court, signed by himself and such solicitor, but not by the clerk; and also a special answer to the petition verified by his own oath.

At the time appointed for showing cause, the parties appeared, and the solicitor for the petitioners moved for judgment on the pleadings, and the solicitor of Sutherland, at the same time moved for an order setting down the cause for trial by jury, as demanded in the paper filed by him.

The motion for judgment is based upon the assumption, that Form No. 61, entitled—"Denial of Bankruptcy and demand for jury by debtor," is simply a rule entered by the clerk at the instance of the debtor, for a jury trial, and that the statement therein, that Sutherland "appears and denies that he has committed the acts of bankruptcy set forth in said petition, and avers that he should not be declared a bankrupt for any cause in said petition alleged," is a mere recital, which is based upon and presupposes, that the debtor has shown cause why he should not be adjudged a bankrupt, by filing an answer in writing traversing the allegations of the petition.

Sections 40 and 41 of the Bankrupt act, provide, that upon the filing of a petition, "the Court shall direct the entry of an order requiring the debtor to appear and show cause, * * * why the prayer of the petition should not be granted;" and that upon the day appointed to show cause, "the court shall proceed summarily to hear the allegations of petitioner and debtor, * * * and shall, if the debtor on the same day so demand in writing, order a trial by jury, at the first term of the Court at which a jury shall be in attendance to ascertain the fact of such alleged bankruptcy."

An allegation is the statement by a party of his cause of action or defence. To allege ... to make ..., to give .... The ... understood signification of the ... the act, and the nature of the ..., That that it is intended, that on the day appointed to show cause, the debtor shall appear and plead to the petition—answer it. ... In Re Drummond, lately decided in the District Court for Indiana, and reported in the "Bankrupt Court Reporter" of November 1, 1867, it ... that the debtor "filed a plea denying the ... in the petition.

As at present advised, I must hold, that the paper filed in the words of Form No. 61, is merely a demand for a trial by jury and not an answer to the petition. It is a ... showing ... nor an allegation by the debtor, and the ... contained in it concerning the ... of the act of bankruptcy, ... in the petition, must be ... a ... denial already and ... and this recital is ... for the ... ing on the face of the entry, that it ... by what has already transpired in ... the filing of an answer to the ... the allegations therein contained.

Whether this answer must be ... or verified or not, appears to me, to depend upon the general rules of the ..., in ... to the pleadings, or any special rule which may ... concerning pleadings in bankruptcy. ... rule of this court, is, that answers must be specific and verified. No good reason is perceived, why any ... should be allowed the defence, in a petition in bankruptcy, than in ... legal proceedings.

The true object of pleading is the same in either case to narrow the controversy to the ... or points ... in ... between the .... To allow the debtor to ..., the allegations of the petition by the entry of a rule or ... with the clerk or a general unverified answer, ... the petitioner to the ... of proving that ... know to be true, and which he would ... under oath.

In considering the motion for judgment the denial recited in the ... by jury will be laid out of view. The only question then which arises upon the motion, is whether the answer admits sufficient to authorize the ... to give judgment, ... bankrupt.

Among other things, the petition ... Sutherland, on November 19, 1867, then and prior thereto, well knowing that he was ... confessed two judgments in favor of ... persons, with intent to give a fraudulent preference to such persons, over his other creditors.

The answer tacitly admits the ... of the judgments and the insolvency of Sutherland, but denies that the judgments were confessed "with any fraudulent intent or with the fraudulent intent to give a fraudulent preference" to the creditors in such judgments.

This traverse is too broad. Although the petition alleges that the intent was to give a fraudulent prefe..., the word fraudulent must be treated as surplusage and not traversable. The bankrupt act (Sec. 39), does not use the word fraudulent in this connection. It declares that if an insolvent person shall confess a judgment "with intent to give a preference to one or more of his creditors" he "shall be deemed to have committed an act of bankruptcy." The object of the act, is to secure an equal distribution of the property of an insolvent among his creditors, and to this end, it makes it an act of bankruptcy for such a person to prefer one creditor over another, without reference to the question, whether such preference would otherwise be considered fraudulent in morals or law.

The petition in this case and the answer following it, seems to have been drawn upon the theory, that a confession of judgment by an insolvent person is not ... an act of bankruptcy, but that, to constitute an act of bankruptcy such confession must have been made with an intent to prefer one creditor over another. Upon this construction of the law, the intent being an essential ingredient of the act of bankruptcy, it would be necessary to aver it in the petition, and such averment would be traversable—liable to be controverted.

But it is questionable if Section 39 will bear this construction. The acts described in the clause "or who being bankrupt or insolvent or in contemplation of bankruptcy or insolvency, shall make any payment, gift, grant, sale, conveyance or transfer of money or other property, estate, rights or credits, or give any warrant to confess judgment"—seem to be declared acts of bankruptcy without reference to the intent of the party committing them, or rather, it is conclusively assumed that an intent to give a preference, is a necessary inference from the commission of such acts; and therefore it is not necessary to aver that the act was done with such intention, because the question is not open to controversy.

In Re Drummond, quoted above, the Court says—"Now, it is a rule that every sane man is presumed to intend the probable consequences of his voluntary act. The consequence of this transfer by Drummond of all his property to a portion of his creditors, were not only that it would probably give them a preference, but that it would necessarily and certainly produce that effect. He must have known that the consequence would follow that act; and he must therefore be conclusively presumed to have intended it. In so doing he committed an act of bankruptcy, and a judgment that he is a bankrupt must follow."

It is also true, that in this case the intent with which the transfer was made by Drummond, appears to have been averred in the pleadings, but, if in the language of the Court, that intent "must be conclusively presumed" from the fact of the transfer under the circumstances, it cannot legitimately be the subject of a distinct issue in the pleadings. The fact being established, only one consequence can follow it, and that the law conclusively presumes was intended. What the law conclusively presumes, cannot be controverted either by pleading or proof.

State Taxes Again.

The din about State taxes is kept up by some of the Democratic organs, and we may expect all of [illegible], before the next election, to be howling in [illegible] "Radical extravagance" in the administration of the State government These who are now at work on this topic never specify any particular matters of extrav[illegible] or corruption; they deal wholly in general phrases and loose [illegible]. We have presented certain figures on the subject for their consideration, but they di[illegible] all [illegible] unsatisfactory and inconclusive methods [illegible] used in the fundamental rules of arithmetic, and rely solely on the powerful extrav[illegible] of the old D[illegible] song about the [illegible], [illegible] and unconstitutional [illegible], generally, of the "party in power." It is [illegible] entirely inadequate to refer to material [illegible] to account for the present condition of the State [illegible] or show why it requires more money to meet the expenses of the State government at the present time than it did six years ago. [illegible] it is [illegible] to write a newspaper article, or deliver a noisy speech, on the subject, without any knowledge of what the writer or speaker is talking about. But let us who have a [illegible] for figures when such a matter as this is to be dealt with, look at certain very simple [illegible] with the case which [illegible] the declaimers are end[illegible]voring to [illegible] against us. The whole expenditures of the State during the two years ending in September, 1862, were $60,272 62. This was before the arrangement was made to keep the [illegible] and idiotic at the expense of the State. At that [illegible] wholly [illegible] for. Numbers of them [illegible] through the State in a most pitiable and distressful condition, and others were [illegible] jails [illegible]. After the Union party ob[illegible] of the State, provision was [illegible] for caring for [illegible] in a [illegible], and the Hospital [illegible] now in operation, was [illegible]. The cost of this Institution for the two [illegible] in September, 1866, was $81,761 [illegible], as we have once before stated, more than [illegible] in excess of the whole cost of the State [illegible] prior to 1867 This has been the [illegible] of the increase of State taxation [illegible] the [illegible] of the State [illegible] very little in this [illegible] it [illegible] necessary [illegible] this [illegible] two and [illegible] third [illegible] revenue as the State had required before. In its general diatribe on the subject of State taxation, the Herald a few days ago said that there was "no honest [illegible] why the ratio of taxation has been [illegible] than the [illegible] of taxable property." We have pointed out a [illegible] of [illegible] not in existence when the Democrats controlled the State, which [illegible] for the taxes being more than doubled [illegible] the Herald think that the [illegible] is not an "honest [illegible] for [illegible]? Its [illegible] it regarded it as a [illegible]" and that it [illegible] by depriving its [illegible] of the comforts of life." That [illegible] committed in favor of [illegible], and, as a [illegible] to support [illegible]. It is [illegible] about the [illegible] to expect such a [illegible] in such an organ.

[illegible] by the [illegible] Herald:

[illegible] from which it emanates, is [illegible] good. It is exceedingly well-timed. Nothing [illegible] be more [illegible] than [illegible] Parish at this juncture. They [illegible] at last [illegible], in some [illegible] of his [illegible]. His [illegible] should [illegible] that he has had a lucid interval He has [illegible] that he is a state of deplorable [illegible]. He [illegible] the "Democratic instinct" and this is the whole extent of his intel[illegible] of the past few [illegible] has shown him that the "D[illegible] the [illegible] series of education," is [illegible] adequate to make a [illegible]. The many lessons we have given [illegible], and particularly on the [illegible] of his own party, have taught him this important fact. His language also shows that he is sensible, to a certain extent, of the [illegible] condition of his party. It is doubtful whether its intellectual status could be better [illegible] than in his own words, viz "The Democratic instinct, unaided by the accessories of education." But there is no wonder that the "instinct" is unaided by these [illegible] when such pitiful ignoramuses as poor old Parish occupy the position of [illegible] of the party. "Instinct" says Falstaff, "is a great matter." But Parish has found that instinct [illegible], —though it be the Democratic instinct,—is very [illegible] to rely on.

FROM OLYMPIA.—A special election for Joint Councilman for the counties of Thurston and Lewis, in Washington Territory, was held on the 6th inst, resulting in the choice of Wm. McLane, Republican, by 19 majority. At the election last June, McLane was declared legally elected, but Longmire, his opponent, contested The case was heard before the Council, and the seat was declared [illegible]. The Governor [illegible] a proclamation for a new election, and the opposing candidate, [illegible] McLane is again successful, which insures a Republican majority in the Council. It ought to be remarked that while McLane was elected last June by a majority of the legal votes, his opponent had a majority of all the votes cast in the district,—two precincts being thrown out for informality McLane's present success is therefore the greater triumph Republicanism does not flag in Washington Territory The Copperhead scheme to get control of the Legislature has failed Highly criminal—according to democratic editors and correspondents—for Republican State officers to own town lots or houses The next Legislature, says the Record, can remedy this by an appropriation to build residences for State officials or do these hypocritical gents want the Governor and Secretary of State to camp out?

NEW YORK, Jan 8.—The Herald's Washington special has the best authority for the statement that the decision of the majority of the Supreme Court in the cases of Mississippi and Georgia, testing the constitutionality of the reconstruction act will be adverse thereto. It is likely that the minority of the court will be smaller than has been supposed It is even hinted that the Chief Justice may not care to place a dissenting opinion on record Such a decision will strike down all reconstruction work thus far done, and leave the decision of the next Presidential election in the hands of the North

The Herald's special mentioned a case of conflict between the Judicial and Military authorities at Raleigh, North Carolina. The matter has been laid before the President.

The Case of Secretary Stanton.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 7 —The report of Senator Howard on the case of Secretary Stanton was presented to-day. It covers over one hundred pages of [illegible]. The report cites the circumstances of his removal and quotes the Tenure of Office bill to show that Congress intended to prevent such removals except from misconduct or legal disqualifications. Mutual dislike or difference of opinion is not sufficient cause. It says the President has the power of suspension, which is created by law, and exists only until the Tenure of Office bill, and he recognizes the binding force of the law, therefore the Committee do not [illegible] the constitutionality of the law, but only to [illegible] the [illegible] upon which the President [illegible] to justify his action The report then reviews the President's action relative to the reconstruction [illegible] of Congress, and shows that his whole course of [illegible] has been in violent antagonism to the will of the nation expressed through Congress. Stanton, on the other hand, favored the faithful execution of these acts He had good [illegible] to believe that if he resigned the President would fill the vacancy with an enemy of the [illegible] plan of reconstruction, and the execution of the statutes [illegible] when the President requested him to [illegible]. The [illegible] the President's doctrine not only a step to [illegible] tyranny but an [illegible] of tyranny It then proceeds to pay a tribute to Stanton, and concludes by submitting [illegible] to concur in the President's suspension of Stanton

California Legislature

SACRAMENTO, Jan 8 —In the Senate, yesterday, Mandevil introduced a bill regulating justices' courts in San Francisco Referred to the delegation from that city

A bill was offered by Conley, repealing the fugitive slave law of that State. Referred to the Judiciary Committee

Lewis offered a resolution, asking our Congressmen to request the passage of a law reducing the time for appeals from the U S Circuit Court to the Supreme Court from five years to one year Referred to the Judiciary Committee

Hager Pearce Murch Roberts and Hascock were appointed Senate Standing Committee on State University

A resolution to adjourn over to January 9th in honor of Gen Andrew Jackson, was passed by 19 to 10

Senate adjourned at 1 10 P M

In the House Cowley, from Committee on Claims, reported against the relief of the Treasurer of Trinity county, for funds of the State lost by special deposit with the firm of Greenhood & Newbauer, who have failed Scudder moved to reconsider the vote of the day before by which M D Boruck was not ejected from assistant clerkship Considerable debate ensued, but the matter was cut short by Boruck's tender of his resignation to take effect on Saturday next, which was at once accepted by the House Warfield offered a resolution to adjourn over to January 9th in honor of the battle of New Orleans, and Gen Andrew Jackson After a good deal of patriotic speaking the resolution passed with but few dissenting votes.

National Literature

The following admirable article is from the Philadelphia Press It will be read with due appreciation by all who have observed the hatred which is manifested by a class of people toward the leading periodicals of the country, as well as toward all the authors who have done most to fix the name of America into the permanent literature of the world We may observe here that the Democratic party has no poets, no historians no men of eminence in any branch of literature that the cultivated intellect of the country is all against them being imbued with that high patriotism which the events of the last ten years have so remarkably developed In no part of the country are the patriotic utterances of our national literature more heartily detested than by a party in Oregon, therefore in no part of the country is the article which we print below more applicable than here

Some of our Democratic contemporaries are taking exceptions to the warm national sympathies and fervid glow of patriotism which pervade the leading periodicals of the land This complaint but reveals the spirit which prompts it Henceforth the literature of the country is consecrated to the cause of the country This proposition is self evident. If authors will write and poets sing so as to touch the popular heart, they must sing and write in behalf of the great principles and ideas for which the popular heart has throbbed so passionately, and for which the best blood of the nation has flowed so freely The war was fought to make us a nation That nationality has been achieved; men have died for it, all have voluntarily accepted debt and loss for it, and it will not do to ignore it now No literature which does so is a literature for the country Nationality is now the web and woof of our life as a people. We might as well give up our language

The blood of Gettysburg and Murfreesboro, and Chickamauga and the Wilderness will color our literature through ages As well expect old English poetry to do without Chevy Chase or the Black Prince, as look for an American literature that avoids, like a Democratic platform, the issues and life of the times Every deed that is done now is controlled and conditioned by the fortunes of the fields of the rebellion and the words that are said and written have no meaning unless they recognize this great fact of our existence Whoever objects to a generous or even impassioned expression of devotion and loyalty to the nation does so from sinister and not from literary motives What Grecian literature would be without a Homer, or Latin without a Virgil, would be an American without our great war Only those will object to its impress on our national mind who objected to its end and conduct And such have no right to speak for us The men whose hearts did not beat responsive to the cheers which rung from Atlanta or along the Appomattox, have no right to speak or write for Americans. They have no part nor lot with us They cannot rejoice with our joy nor weep with our sorrow

We are glad to see that the first class magazines and literary journals recognize this law, for such it is, and are colored with the feelings and sympathies and hopes of the people For what the men of a nation have died, it is likely that henceforth the true men of the country will write, and those who will not or cannot, admit themselves to be in dissonance with the heart and life of the people

BRONCHITIS —FROM MR C H GARDNER, Principal of the Rutgers Female Institute N Y May 14th 1865: "I have been afflicted with Bronchitis during the past winter and found no relief until I found your Troches" "Brown's Bronchial Troches," or Cough Lozenges give prompt relief in Coughs, Colds, and Throat Diseases and are for sale throughout the United States and most foreign countries

Photographs from card to life size The new cabinet cards, &c , &c Small pictures enlarged (retouched in India ink—painted in water colors or oil by Mrs S J Rumsey Pictures that are fading can be reproduced in this way All negatives taken in this gallery will be carefully preserved, and additional copies had I have now on hand a very large collection of negatives, the names of which are recorded alphabetically in a book for that purpose that can be seen in the reception room

The average amount of reading matter in the WEEKLY [illegible] is double that published by any other journal in O[illegible], and in the particular of Commercial statistics and the Markets we aim to make it the most reliable [illegible] in matters pertaining to Oregon interests.

RAILROAD ENGINEERS IN TOWN.—Mr. B. C. Lewis, Chief [illegible], and Robert Randall, Assistant Engineer, of the Oregon Central railroad, returned to this city last evening. They report that they have completed one line to the "Holmes Gap," a few miles this side the Rickreal in Polk County and sixty miles from Portland. They report the line an excellent one. It runs by way of "C[illegible] pass" and W[illegible] Lake, being a shorter line to [illegible] than by any wagon road or other practicable route [illegible]. From the point where the line touches the [illegible] plains, to its present terminus, not an acre of land was found not susceptible of profitable cultivation. The [illegible] has [illegible] the line of its road as far as the "[illegible] Gap" near W[illegible] Lake, passing the [illegible] range of hills by the Cornell gap, skirting [illegible] on the west, [illegible] to Forest Grove and up the east side the lake. Mr. [illegible] will prepare a map [illegible] for filing at Washington and other [illegible] maps and [illegible] for the C[illegible]'s use, while Mr. Lewis will be engaged upon estimates preparatory to letting contracts, [illegible] a few days will clean up all necessary [illegible] to them [illegible] completed we will be able to [illegible] with the probable cost of the first sixty miles.

"[illegible]"—Yesterday [illegible] a man from the country went aboard the ferry boat, and the wind being about as sharp as a two-edged sword, he concluded to seek comfort in the engine and boiler hold, [illegible] for a brief [illegible] his winter of discontent was [illegible]. Just as he had got [illegible] comfortably settled [illegible] the boiler furnace and had [illegible] congratulated himself on his strategy, the water gauge attached to the boiler bursted, scattering hot water, steam and [illegible] around [illegible]. The countryman jumped up, evidently with the conviction that he would [illegible] up at [illegible], and bawling at the top of his [illegible] "Ow! Oh! Ugh! she's busted!" he made a [illegible] through the gangway, landing at a single [illegible] deck and striking his head against the wheel-[illegible]. The latter was harder than the fellow's head, and down he went, scared, stunned and believing [illegible] for the [illegible], a genuine [illegible] the victim of [illegible]. The incident was [illegible] laughable to [illegible], but the countryman [illegible] unable to [illegible] where his part of the laugh came in.

NAVIGATION OF THE LOWER RIVER.—Notwithstanding the rafts of ice running in the river yesterday morning, the O[illegible] started down the river, intending to go to [illegible] or at least far enough to meet the [illegible]. About four miles below the city, however, [illegible] large fields of ice, and the Captain, [illegible] to force the boat [illegible] to return. Later in the day [illegible] Fisher of the [illegible] determined to try the [illegible] and [illegible] a [illegible] scow in front of his [illegible] started down, and as up to evening he had not [illegible] concluded that he [illegible] in getting out into the Columbia. Shortly after the [illegible] started the [illegible] down the river; but had [illegible] the [illegible] little too many for her, returned to the [illegible] she shipped the Julia's [illegible] the trip a third time. It is probable she, too, got through and went on down. At the rate the ice was [illegible] it may be doubtful whether either of them get back soon.

THE P[illegible]—The [illegible] last evening by the Philharmonic Society for the benefit of the [illegible] was equal if not superior [illegible] in point of [illegible] selections and [illegible]. The [illegible] was not so large as at least one former occasion [illegible] the audience was really a high compliment to the [illegible] and [illegible] who [illegible] the high [illegible] in which [illegible] are held by the public of [illegible]. By this [illegible], the Library Association will [illegible] sum.

[illegible] express [illegible] an express from this city overland to Camps Harney and Warner, via [illegible] the [illegible]. The [illegible] left the city at about [illegible] to [illegible] Dalles by the river [illegible] Sunday evening. They were provided with such a [illegible] pack [illegible] boots, provisions [illegible], etc., and four animals to carry [illegible] for the train. The outfit was certainly a fine [illegible], but the [illegible] can scarcely be envied the comfort of the trip.

[illegible].—As illustrative of the prevailing rage [illegible], we may mention that two [illegible] were [illegible] yesterday [illegible] at the [illegible] hour of [illegible] in [illegible] up and repairing to the lake near [illegible] Works for a jolly slide, all by [illegible] midnight raid was the result of [illegible] for skating, or the gentlemen were so [illegible] that they were ashamed to let even the [illegible] their cavorting, does not appear from [illegible].

[illegible] COLD.—While we have been growling at 18 [illegible] above zero, the people at Yreka have [illegible] of genuine [illegible], with which [illegible] as balmy as the breath of spring. Last [illegible] at Yreka [illegible] the coldest weather experienced [illegible] winter of '66-'67. It will be [illegible] that during that winter, the thermometer sunk as low in this valley [illegible].

[illegible]—The following [illegible] in the U. S. District Court, Friday, Jan. 10th:

[illegible] the court [illegible] that he be adjudged a bankrupt. [illegible] Thos. H. Farrell, in [illegible] bankruptcy, motion to strike out answer [illegible]; hearing had upon the [illegible] bankrupt.

[illegible]—Wells, Fargo & Co's express [illegible] from the Dalles, is expected to arrive here this [illegible] to-morrow, bringing the express from Boise and the Upper Columbia. The latter was due at the [illegible] and it is supposed that the messenger [illegible] Friday morning. [illegible] he will probably leave on Monday or Tuesday—not sooner.

[illegible].—Those who have to deal with water [illegible] may save themselves much trouble and vexation by [illegible] a small stream of water to run constantly. The [illegible] of the water from the underground pipes [illegible] will keep the pipes [illegible] clear of ice. Those who have [illegible] the [illegible] had no trouble on [illegible] pipes.

[illegible] O'Neil, W[illegible] and others, [illegible] the [illegible] of minstrels, [illegible] lately at Olympia, to fair houses. Mar[illegible] the wizard and Bartholomew's [illegible] were playing at [illegible] Jan. 1st, each having a very good patronage. The last we heard of Gr[illegible] and the T[illegible], they were [illegible] concerts at [illegible]burg.

ICE IN THE COLUMBIA.—We learn from the telegraph [illegible] that last evening there was less ice running in the Columbia river at Vancouver than on either of the two preceding days. [illegible] from this we conclude that the [illegible] steamer will not fail to reach St. Helens or the [illegible] of the Willamette.

[illegible] from Oregon City [illegible] 1 bbl beef, 2 hlf bbls butter, 4 boxes [illegible] 20 sks feed. Arrived per [illegible] Alert from [illegible], 186 sks feed, 1,448 qr sks flour, 18 slaughtered hogs, 4 boxes eggs, 71 bags wheat, 136 sks oats and 3 [illegible] barns.

GONE TO PLACES OF SAFETY.—The steamers Wilson G. [illegible] and J. H. Couch were yesterday afternoon withdrawn from their moorings at the Hope yard, and run down to a place of greater security from ice, below Swan [illegible].

U. S. [illegible] COURT. DEADY, JUSTICE.—In the U. S. [illegible] yesterday, the case of David Dick vs. C. E. M[illegible] et al. was submitted on the Master's report [illegible] argument; judgment [illegible] till this morning.

FROM THE CLACKAMAS.—The [illegible] men report that the greater part of the floating ice running yesterday came out of the Clackamas river. Above the falls, but little was running.

[illegible] FRUIT AND VEGETABLES.—We hear of several [illegible] where [illegible] have lost some fruit and vegetables from freezing. Others have saved their stocks by keeping [illegible] fires.

It is a remarkable fact that the entire assessed value of real and personal estate in Pennsylvania is only $600,000,000, while Ohio and Massachusetts each show about $1,200,000,000, and New York [illegible] $1,600,000,000. The Pennsylvania [illegible] say that the assessing officers and boards of revision of that State assess property at one-third, and in some cases, at one-fifth of its actual value; a practice which makes the statistical exhibit of Pennsylvania, as compared with that of other States, shamefully to her disadvantage.

CAPITOL, OLYMPIA, Dec. 11th, 1867.

DR. GROSS, Portland—Sir: I have been in the habit of using the "HEALEY ROYAL BALSAM" in my family, who reside at Walla Walla, Walla Walla county, W. T. I am now at Olympia, attending the present session of the Legislature, and the climate is so different from that of Walla Walla county that I have taken cold, and I have endeavored to purchase some of the medicine here but was unable to do so. Please send a bottle by immediately by mail. I have used nothing else in my family and cannot get along without it. Yours truly,

J. M. VANSYCKLE.

STATE ITEMS.

The thermometer at Salem on Tuesday morning stood nine deg. above zero. The coldest day that has been experienced, so far, at that place.

A daily paper will be issued at Salem during the State and Presidential contest, to be called the Democratic Tocsin. The prospectus will be published soon.

The Record learns that the mill at Gardiner on the lower Umpqua has been cutting a great amount of lumber. The Gardiner Mill Co. has been exploring the head waters of Smith's river for timber, and report plenty—and intend enlarging the capacity of their mills. The whole concern is now owned by C. Hanson & Co., San Francisco.

The First Hebrew Benevolent Society of Portland, Oregon, will hold a Regular Meeting on Sunday, 12th inst., at half-past one o'clock P. M. at the Turn Verein Hall. ISAAC N. WALTER, Sec'y.

HELMBOLD'S FLUID EXTRACT BUCHU

Is a certain cure for diseases of the BLADDER, KIDNEYS, GRAVEL, DROPSY, ORGANIC WEAKNESS, FEMALE COMPLAINTS, GENERAL DEBILITY, and all diseases of the URINARY ORGANS,

whether existing in MALE OR FEMALE, from whatever cause originating and no matter of HOW LONG STANDING.

Diseases of these organs require the use of a diuretic. If no treatment is submitted to, Consumption or Insanity may ensue. Our flesh and blood are [illegible] from these sources, and the HEALTH AND HAPPINESS, and that of Posterity, depends upon prompt use of a reliable remedy.

HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU,

Established upwards of 18 years, prepared by
H. T. HELMBOLD, Druggist,
594 Broadway, New York, and jan6d1m 104 South 10th Street, Philadelphia, Pa.

ENFEEBLED AND DELICATE CONSTITUTIONS, of both sexes, use HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU. It will give brisk and energetic feelings, and enable you to sleep well.

DR. G. W. COOL,
DENTIST.

THOSE WHO DESIRE FIRST-CLASS DENTAL SERVICES might do well to give him a call. He is making a NEW AND IMPROVED VULCANITE PLATE. The nature of his improvement consists in lining the entire concave surface with fine gold; it makes the plate twice as strong and one-third times thinner than the common vulcanite plate. It also prevents the acids of the [illegible] from roughing the plate, and from turning it black, which is a common occurrence. One half of the common vulcanite plates turn black after being in use a short time, particularly where tobacco is used for smoking. His new style of plate admits of a very fine finish on the concave or palate surface. His office is the only place where such work can be had. The improvement is his own invention, for which he has received, D[illegible] 3d, 1867, a patent from the United States Patent Office. He has been making this style of work for the last two and a half years, and has specimens of the work which can be seen at his office. This work has given satisfaction in every case.

PERRY DAVIS' VEGETABLE PAIN KILLER.

THE UNIVERSAL REMEDY FOR INTERNAL AND EXTERNAL COMPLAINTS!

At this period there are but few of the human race unacquainted with the merits of the Pain Killer; but while some extol it as a liniment, they know but little of its power in easing pain when taken internally, while others use it internally with great success, but are equally ignorant of its healing virtues when applied externally. We therefore wish to say to all that it is equally successful whether used internally or externally, and it stands alone, unrivalled by all the great catalogue of Family Medicines, and its sale is universal and immense. The demand for it from India and other foreign countries is equal to the demand at home, and it has become known in these far off places by its merits.

TAKE NO MORE UNPLEASANT AND UNSAFE REMEDIES for unpleasant and dangerous diseases. Use HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU AND IMPROVED ROSE WASH.

TEETH EXTRACTED

By Dr. Richardson's Apparatus, Lately Improved by Dr. Koehler, with Ether Spray.

WILLIAM KOEHLER,
DENTIST.

OFFICE AND RESIDENCE Southwest corner Front and Yamhill Streets, opposite E. J. Northrup & Co.'s Hardware Store.

Extracting Teeth by Dr. Richardson's apparatus, with Ether Spray, is local in its application, the tooth and surrounding parts only becoming insensible to pain. Those suffering from bad teeth can now have them removed free from pain and without the effects of inhaling chloroform, ether or nitrous oxyde (laughing gas.)

N. B.—To strangers I would say, that a constantly increasing Dental Practice for the last five years in this city, will be a sufficient guarantee for them to receive a First-Class and Finished Piece of Work. Numerous testimonials to the same can be given at the office.

G. VENARD'S
CHARTRES COFFEE

Manufactory Established in June, 1851.

STEAM POWER, NOS. 685 AND 687 FRONT ST.

HAS CONSTANTLY ON HAND GROUND AND ROASTED COFFEE, GREEN COFFEE of the best qualities, CREAM OF TARTAR and SPICES of all sorts. The undersigned, who has always enjoyed public confidence for the excellent quality of his Coffee, neglects nothing to justify the good name acquired by his productions, the sale of which is daily increasing. The acknowledged superiority of his merchandise, which commands here, and in the markets of the interior, a relatively higher price, excites the cupidity of some manufacturers, and every day he sees increasing the number of those who, by counterfeit or imitation of his mark, seek to deceive the public, palming upon them their [illegible] for the genuine G. VENARD CHARTRES COFFEE. This fraud can deceive nobody after a trial, but only adds to the favorable opinion of the consumers, the very flattering though unwilling testimony of the counterfeiters. Nevertheless, buyers should be forewarned, and placed on their guard against this practice.

BEWARE OF COUNTERFEITS.

Each package bears the signature of G. VENARD.

WEEKLY REVIEW.

PORTLAND, FRIDAY, JAN. 10, 1868.

The telegraph was again down yesterday and up to the hour of writing has not worked to-day, in consequence of which we are without money quotations later than the 7th, when gold was reported in New York at 136¾ at the close of the board. Legal Tenders, at San Francisco, on that day, were 74½c buying and 76c selling.

Our local markets present no new aspects, being in all departments very quiet, in consequence of the severe winter weather. The closing of the Columbia river has for the time being, not only cut off all trade in that direction, but mail and express communication, except an overland letter and treasure express which is expected to make weekly trips, to begin upon the arrival of the Orflamme. During the past week, the navigation of the Willamette has also been interrupted by high water, and hence only very limited movements of either merchandise or produce, have occurred. The jobbing trade of the city, therefore has been very small and confined mostly to sales to local retail dealers.

In the way of exports for the week, we have only to mention the shipments by the Ajax, which sailed on Saturday, the 4th, carrying 2,357 boxes apples, 1,098 sacks wheat, 22,513 qr sks flour and fair [illegible] of various other articles of produce.

The price of wheat has stiffened a little under the influence of telegrams from San Francisco and we quote from 90c to $1 10, the latter figure an outside price for extra white. The condition of the San Francisco markets which govern ours, is indicated by the following report of the 7th inst.:

"Flour—There is improved tone to the market in consequence of renewed activity. Sales include 1,400 qr sks fine, for China, at $5 50, 400 bbls city extra, for New Y[illegible] private; 1,000 bbls city superfine, in hf sks, $6 75; 2,000 bbls Saleno, private, 1,000 bbls commercial super[illegible] rates; 3,000 bbls superfine, various brands, $6 75@6 87½.

Wheat—Sales include 500 sks Oregon, private; 1,300 sks [illegible] $2 20; 450 sks fair, $2 22½, 1,000 sacks [illegible] in white bags, $2 31¼; 600 sks extra choice in white bags, $2 70. We quote market firm at $2 65 for [illegible] at the close. Ten thousand sks choice full figures; 4,000 sks medium, private."

With one or two trifling exception, we quote the entire [illegible] lists as last week; but the figures are mostly nominal.

The buying quotation of wool is reduced this week to suit the actual state of the market. We find that buyers will not consider an offer above 15c per pound, while [illegible] to pay [illegible] a better figure for the producer than 15@17c. The range is from 14 to 18c. [illegible] figures are quite up to the market prices in San F[illegible] without adding transportation. The Eastern markets afford no margin for shipments and this branch of [illegible] trade must, therefore, languish until some turn takes place in the Atlantic States.

HIRAM SMITH'S

Ophthalmic Panacea!

IN BRINGING THE ABOVE-NAMED NEW REMEDY to the notice of the Public, the Proprietor begs to state a few facts in relation to it, as follows:

It originated in Prussia, where the science of Medicine is so thoroughly taught and practised, but owing to the poverty of its discoverer its wonderful properties were not known beyond the limited circle of his acquaintance, in which, however, it proved itself absolutely infallible in eradicating disease from the eyes.

He immigrated to this country, bringing his discovery with him, but seems to have been indifferent to the propriety of giving it general and wide-spread circulation, and, as previously in his native country, seemed only desirous of using it among his friends and neighbors.

The present proprietor was one of those neighbors, and for many years was a witness to its wonderful efficacy, and, after ineffectual efforts to [illegible] the inventor to more widely disseminate the knowledge of its virtues, finally became himself the possessor of the secret of its preparation.

And now, while he does not deny that he hopes and expects to make money by its sale, he must yet lay claim to a desire to benefit his fellows by presenting to them a remedy which does and will cure when medical science and all experience have failed.

He wishes it to be understood that it will cure all diseases of the eye, whether of recent or long standing, but its greatest power is exhibited when it is applied to old Chronic Cases of long standing, which have resisted every other attempt to cure them, and which, have been given up as hopeless and past being cured or relieved.

He asks those afflicted in this way to give it a trial, and so confident is he of its [illegible] that he instructs all his agents TO REFUND THE MONEY IF IT FAILS TO CURE.

It has, within the past year, cured cases of GRANULATED LIDS, INFLAMMATION, &c., of FIVE, SIX, NINE, FIFTEEN and SEVENTEEN YEARS STANDING, [illegible] of the following persons, living at and in the neighborhood of Harrisburg, Linn county:

ALEXANDER L. WALKER was cured of inflamed eyes, of nine years [illegible] had been treated by eminent physicians during all that time without effect.

Mrs. MONTGOMERY, of Harrisburg, had inflamed eyes for over two years. For one year they were so bad that she could not work. Was finally completely cured by the Ophthalmic Panacea.

E. B. MOORE, of the firm of Moore, Garst & Baber, of Harrisburg, had granulated lids for six years.

NATHANIEL BELL, of Clackamas county, had inflamed eyes [illegible] for over fifteen years.

ROBERT RAMPEY and W. D. PORTER, of Harrisburg; JOHN M. HOLLOWAY, of Linn County; G. R. WARD, of Lane County, were all afflicted, more or less severely, with diseased eyes, and were cured by the Ophthalmic Panacea.

All the above named persons have given lengthy testimonials to the facts as above stated, which may be seen at the proprietor's office in Harrisburg.

CARD.

DR. BARLOW J. SMITH'S WATER CURE AND Phrenological Institute, 627 Sacramento Street, San Francisco. This is the only Regular Water Cure in Francisco, where all curable diseases are treated without drugs. Dr. Smith was the first to establish a water cure on this coast, based upon the theory and practice of the New York Hydropathic College.

We have a truly healthful boarding place for men, women and children, and our prices are moderate.

The Phrenological organs plainly indicate the diseases to which any person, male or female, is predisposed.

Put this card in your hat, and when you come to San Francisco, call on Dr. Smith. He will give you [illegible] and a phrenological examination in regard to health. It will cost you nothing and may save you months and years of ill health and "bad luck."

Dr. Smith gives free lectures to gentlemen every Friday evening, on subjects pertaining to health, at his Phrenological Hall, 627 Sacramento Street.

TO THE UNFORTUNATE.

NEW REMEDIES, NEW REMEDIES

Dr. Gibbon's Dispensary.

616 KEARNEY STREET, NEAR COMMERCIAL, San Francisco. Established in 1854, for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases, such as Gonorrhoea, Gleet, Stricture, Syphilis in all its forms, Seminal Weakness, [illegible], etc. Skin Diseases (of years standing) and Ulcerated Legs successfully treated.

Horrible Diseases.

How many thousands of persons, both male and female, are there who are suffering out a miserable existence from the effects of secret indulgence, or from virus absorbed into the system! Look at their pallid, [illegible] faces and their broken-down constitutions, disqualifying them for the happiness of marriage or the enjoyment of life. In this horrid situation [illegible] suffer until death closes the scene. Let parents, guardians, friends, attend to those who are suffering with any of these horrible life destroying maladies [illegible] that they are cured for and cured before it be too late. Send them immediately to Doctor Gibbon, a physician who has made private disease his especial study for years, and who is certain to cure the most inveterate cases without mercury or any injurious drugs. It is important to those who are afflicted, or to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends, to be careful of the many pretended doctors who infest all cities, publishing their skill in curing all diseases in a few days, imposing upon the public by using the names of eminent physicians from Europe and other places. Be therefore careful and make strict inquiry, or you may fall into the hands of those charlatans.

Seminal Weakness.

[illegible], the consequence of self-abuse. This solitary vice, or depraved sexual indulgence, is practised by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent, producing, with unerring certainty, the following train of morbid symptoms, unless combated by scientific medical measures, viz: Sallow countenance, dark spots under the eyes, pain in the head, ringing in the ears, noise like the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots, [illegible] about the loins, weakness of the limbs, confused vision, [illegible] intellect, loss of confidence, diffidence in approaching strangers, a dislike to form new acquaintance, a disposition to shun society, loss of memory, hectic flushes, pimples and various eruptions about the face, furred tongue, feted breath, coughs, consumption, night sweats, monomania and frequent insanity. If relief be not obtained, should apply immediately, either in person or by letter, and have a cure effected by his new and scientific mode of treating this disease, which never fails of effecting a quick and radical cure. Dr. G. will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove that he came to him that he was cured of this complaint by either of the San Francisco quacks.

MARRIED MEN,

Or those who contemplate marriage, who are suffering under any of these fearful maladies, should not forget the sacred responsibility resting upon them nor delay to obtain immediate relief.

TO THE LADIES.

The various complicated and distressing diseases incident to females, treated with eminent success.
